Para pensar

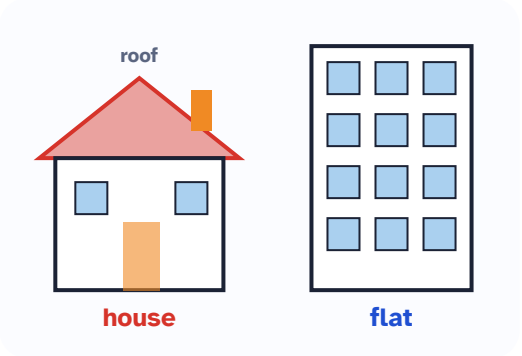

Tu gato se ha escondido. Tu amiga inglesa pregunta «Where's the cat?». ¿Cómo le dices que está debajo de la cama, en la cocina?

Explicación

House or flat?

We live in different homes. A house (casa) usually has got two floors and sometimes a garden. A flat (piso; in American English, apartment) is a home in a big building with many flats. Some people live in a cottage (casita de campo) or on a farm.

The parts of a building: roof (tejado), wall (pared), door (puerta), window (ventana), chimney (chimenea), stairs (escaleras) and lift (ascensor). ¿Vives en un house o en un flat?

The rooms

A home has got different rooms. In the kitchen we cook. In the living room (salón) we watch TV and talk. In the dining room (comedor) we eat. In the bedroom (dormitorio) we sleep. In the bathroom we have a shower and brush our teeth.

Other places: the hall (recibidor), the garage, the garden (jardín), the balcony (balcón) and the attic (desván). Truco: muchas habitaciones acaban en room (habitación): bed + room = dormitorio.

Furniture

Furniture (muebles) is the things we put in the rooms: bed (cama), wardrobe (armario), desk (escritorio), chair (silla), table (mesa), sofa, armchair (sillón), shelf (estantería), lamp (lámpara) and mirror (espejo).

In the kitchen there's a fridge (nevera), a cooker (cocina, fogones) and a sink (fregadero). In the bathroom there's a bath (bañera), a shower (ducha), a toilet (váter) and a washbasin (lavabo). Ojo: furniture nunca lleva -s.

room	furniture
bedroom	bed, wardrobe
kitchen	fridge, cooker
bathroom	bath, toilet
living room	sofa, armchair

Where is it? In, on, under

To say where things are, we use prepositions of place. In = dentro de: «The ball is in the box.» On = encima de, sobre: «The book is on the table.» Under = debajo de: «The cat is under the bed.»

En castellano: en español «en» sirve para dentro y para encima («en la caja», «en la mesa»). En inglés hay que elegir: dentro es in y encima es on. Imagina una caja y una pelota para recordarlo.

More places: next to, behind, in front of

Other useful prepositions: next to (al lado de): «The lamp is next to the bed.» Behind (detrás de): «The broom is behind the door.» In front of (delante de): «The sofa is in front of the TV.» Between (entre): «The desk is between the bed and the window.»

To ask, say: «Where's my schoolbag?» — «It's next to your desk.» For plurals: «Where are my shoes?» — «They're under the bed.»

There is, there are

To describe a room, we use there is (hay, para una cosa) and there are (hay, para varias): «There's a bed in my bedroom. There are two windows.» Negative: «There isn't a TV. There aren't any posters.»

Questions: «Is there a garden?» — «Yes, there is.» / «No, there isn't.» «Are there any stairs?» — «Yes, there are.» En castellano: «hay» es una sola palabra; en inglés depende de si es una cosa (is) o varias (are).

Reading: Oliver's flat

Read Oliver's email: «Hi! I live in a flat on the fifth floor. It's small but nice. There's a living room with a big sofa and a TV. The kitchen is next to the living room. There are two bedrooms: mine and my parents'. In my bedroom there's a bed, a desk and a wardrobe. My guitar is on the bed and my football is under the desk. There isn't a garden, but there's a balcony with lots of plants. What's your home like?»

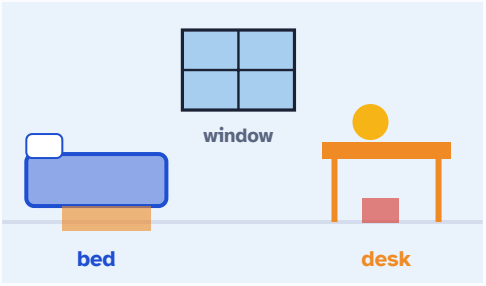

Answer: Has Oliver got a garden? Where is his football?

My bedroom

Your bedroom is your special place. Describe it: «My bedroom is small and blue. There's a bed next to the window. There are some posters on the wall. My toys are in a big box under the bed. My desk is in front of the window.»

Useful adjectives: big / small, tidy (ordenado) / messy (desordenado), bright (luminoso), cosy (acogedor). ¿Tu habitación es tidy o messy hoy?

Let's practise: hide and seek

Play Hide the teddy. One pupil goes out of the class. The others hide a teddy bear. When the pupil comes back, he or she asks questions: «Is it under the desk?» — «No, it isn't.» «Is it in the bin?» — «Yes, it is!»

You can also draw a plan of your dream house and describe it: «In my dream house there are ten bedrooms, a swimming pool on the roof and a slide between the floors!» Presenta tu casa soñada a la clase.
