- Say I love my family

Para pensar

Think of your family. Who lives in your house? Can you say one family word in English?

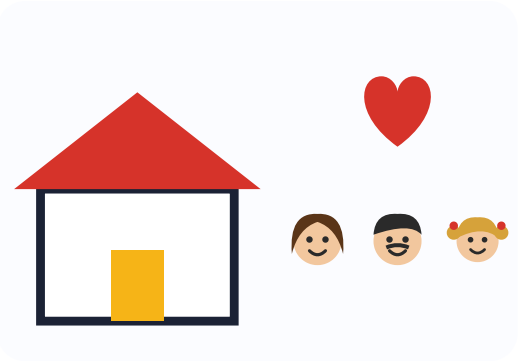

Explicación

1. My family

This is my family. We live together and we love each other.

Families can be big or small. Some families have two mums or two dads. Some have one parent.

Every family is special. Who is in your family?

2. Mum and dad

This is my mum. This is my dad.

We can also say mother and father. Together they are my parents.

Mum and dad take care of me. They read me stories at night.

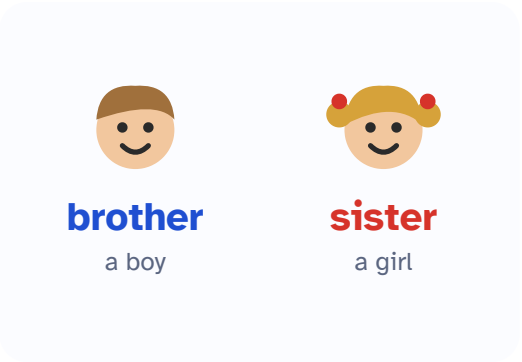

3. Brother and sister

This is my brother. He is a boy. This is my sister. She is a girl.

A big brother is older. A little sister is younger.

Have you got a brother or a sister? Say: I have one brother. or I have no sisters.

4. Grandma and grandpa

My mum's mum is my grandma. My dad's dad is my grandpa.

We can also say granny and grandad.

Grandparents tell great stories. Do you visit your grandma and grandpa?

5. The baby

This is the baby. The baby is very small.

The baby sleeps a lot and cries a lot. The baby drinks milk.

A baby can be a baby brother or a baby sister. Shh! The baby is sleeping.

6. Who's this?

To ask about a person, we say: Who's this?

We answer: This is my sister. or This is my grandpa.

Show a photo of your family to a friend. Ask and answer!

7. He and she

For a boy or a man, we say he. For a girl or a woman, we say she.

This is my dad. He is tall.

This is my grandma. She is funny. He and she help us talk about people.

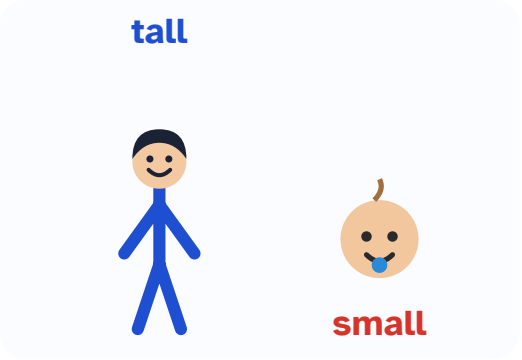

8. Big and small, old and young

We can describe our family with adjectives.

Dad is tall. The baby is small.

Grandpa is old. My cousin is young. My sister is happy. How is your family?

9. Uncles, aunts and cousins

Our family is bigger than our house!

Mum's brother is my uncle. Dad's sister is my aunt.

Their children are my cousins. We play together at birthday parties.

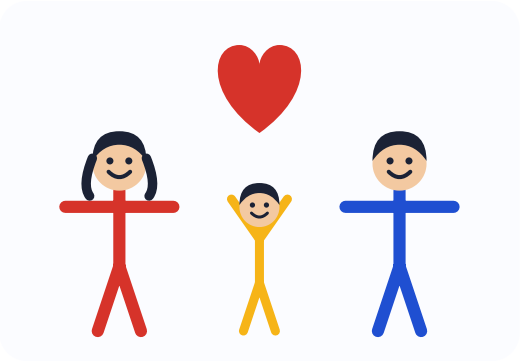

10. I love my family

Families help each other.

We hug. We play. We eat together. We say thank you.

Say it to your family today: I love you! It is a beautiful sentence in English.

11. Game: the family tree

Draw a family tree. It looks like a real tree!

Put your grandparents at the top. Then your parents. Then you and your brothers and sisters at the bottom.

Point and say: This is my grandma. This is my mum. This is me!

12. Review: my family

Now you can name your family: mum, dad, brother, sister, grandma, grandpa and baby.

You can ask Who's this? and answer This is my...

You know he and she. And you can say I love my family! Great work!
